

Heather Russell, Ph.D., Chair, Department of English, FIU. Dr. Heather Russell's research and teaching interests have focused on the intersections of race, gender, class, postcoloniality and genre. Her research has primarily examined narrative form and its relationship to configurations of national/racial identities. She is an active affiliated professor with African and African Diaspora Studies, the Latin American and Caribbean Center and Women's Studies, and, belongs to several professional organizations including the Modern Language Association and the Caribbean Studies Association.